

Water, we said is magic. It is also a medium of communication. Telepathy, and we have not said this before, but this is most important, telepathy travels on waves of water, magnetic resonance from one human being to another. You are water beings. Have you ever heard this? We don't believe it's been said.

This is very interesting. We wondered earlier today if this could be the case, and we looked at each other and said, "Why didn't we know this before?"

You didn't know it before because humans don't know how to think outside of their structured patterns. It's like you're in a maze and you can't get out. This is why we work with your third eye, expanding the parameters of the water within your being to accept other magnetic communications. This is part of what you will experience with crop circles, too. Telepathic reception. The more you tune into the water of your body, the more you resonant with what is being communicated. Working with water is most important for humans. You will teach this and take it into the world. Humans do not understand the concept that telepathy is relayed through water. It is a new unthought-of of concept.

A new unthought-of concept.

Yes. Meaning, humans have not thought of this. To them it will be a new idea. It is actually a truth, an ancient truth. Humans will be amazed and surprised. They think telepathy is about some form in the air, traveling from one person to another, and it is not airborne, it is water borne; it is magnetic resonance between human-to-human water that makes understanding and communication easier and more direct.

Carl Jung and others asserted that the collective unconscious is out in the air or in the atmosphere, but what you are saying is, I'm getting Goosebumps, that the collective consciousness is in our bodies and in the waters of the planet. So we actually are able to communicate directly to each other and to the planet through the resonance of water.

Yes! All life communicates through the magnetic resonance of water. The more humans separate themselves from Nature and the water of this planetary being and the crystalline and liquid grid underneath, the more separation occurs through lack of communication. Humans experience communication blockage and separation through ignoring the importance of water. It is impossible to communicate thoroughly when you are separated and do not understand the very nature of your being, both the magnetics and the water carrier manifestation of how communication occurs. Listening to the earth, listening to each other is listening to water.

Did you give me this thought today?

CONVERSATIONS WITH LAARKMAA: A PLEIADIAN VIEW OF THE NEW REALITY

Yes! Although we have to say your communication with your High Self (every human has a higher self, some call them guides, some call them angels, who guide them towards their divinity) gave you this thought as well. It is not only us; it is the open communication pathways and channels that you have engaged in and opened through your willingness and devotion to having a receiving mind and heart as well as a heart and mind that think and speak. You have decided to listen, and you both listen well. So, you can thank your High Self and, we are so excited, you don't need to thank us. It is a resonant communication that you provide yourself as divine co-creator simply opening up and listening. Do you now fully understand the importance of water for Connection and communication? It is electrical magnetic resonance that is carried by all of Life. We are most excited about this! Now, you need to remember it is you who listened and came up with the concept and the understanding, the knowingness, the Truth, the goosebumps, the whole package, of knowing that telepathy and communication and ideas travel on waves of water, not through the air waves. Have you heard any other human say this?

Never.

No, of course not. This is new understanding being brought to human awareness, and it came through you. We put messages from our water telepathically into your water, and they naturally Connected. In order to translate incoming water messages, you must surrender to listening. You deepen your listening skills by listening to your own water. We are very happy with discussion of this concept of telepathy and water. This has been a joint team effort of all of us working together.

We will continue our conversation about the Connection between the magic of water and First Sense. You have understood this and have begun to transfer thoughts, feelings, and messages back and forth rapidly between yourselves.
